Spring Time in Paris

Dinner Dance 2016

There was a little taste of Paris in Spring Valley Lake Saturday Night, April 9, 2016. There were Eiffel towers and berets to be seen all around. All enjoyed a delicious French meal consisting of dinner salad, roast beef with au jus sauce, au gratin potatoes, French style green beans and dinner rolls. There was also a delicious dessert bar that consisted of éclairs, cream puffs and cupcakes that was hard to keep stocked. Daze of Blue delivered a great performance and were sure to keep the dance floor alive throughout the night. It was a great evening. Thank you to all who came and spent the beautiful evening with us. We hope to see you soon!

2016 Inaugural PIRATE PLUNDER

COLD WATER CHALLENGE

There was a group of Pirates that shipwrecked at the SVL Beach on Saturday, March 12, 2016. Approximately 55 people braved the chilly air to come see what they were up to. They brought a few special visitors along with them, such as Santa Claus and Miss America, it was quite a lively bunch. The Pirates recruited 25 people to join the challenge and off they went. They ran straight into the cold water and continued across the whole stretch of the swimming area, out of the water and through the water fountain. They then took the chance to warm up next to the heaters while they enjoyed a cup of coffee or hot cocoa and a donut.

There was $720 raised through participant fees as well as other donations received. All of these proceeds will go to benefit the SVL Little League. Thank you to everyone who came out supported and participated.

Easter Egg Hunt 2016

The Easter Bunny was in Spring Valley Lake early Saturday morning March 26, 2016. He hid over 3,000 eggs in Meadowlark Park and visited with nearly 400 adults and children. He kept the smile on his face as the line continued to grow to get a picture with him. Right at 9am the little ones took off through the gate and began gathering all the eggs into their little baskets. You could see smiles and hear giggles all around. Next up was the older ones. You could see the eagerness and determination in their eyes as they ran through the gates to get the most eggs as possible. Once the hunt was over many stuck around and played on the new playground sets and enjoyed free donuts, coffee and juice. It was a great morning and we thank everyone who came out and celebrated Easter with us. The Easter Bunny hopes to see you all again next year!
